

Toward 2012: Changes Present and Future

Living as Spiritual Beings in a Human Drama of Change

As energies and events whirlwind their way toward 2012, what can we learn? Do? How can we expand our concepts? Serve others in community and individually? We can help bring about the transformation that we, as humanity, need in this long awaited rebirth of human consciousness. These messages and meditations will lead us.

Join us for 6 evenings of Channeling and Meditation to receive, act in community and heal as individuals and as a planetary force of Love.
